

Effective Fall 2024

Course Instructional Methods

Northeast Community College will be offering courses via multiple delivery methods. Synchronous learning means that students are required to participate in class at specified day(s) and time(s). Asynchronous learning means that students engage in instruction and coursework on their own schedule in accordance with course deadlines.

On your class schedule, you will notice changes in the "Location" of classes. Course locations will be one of the following options:

Classroom Based

Course instruction is delivered synchronously in a designated classroom. Canvas assignments can be assigned.

Location is CLASSROOM
