LEARNING OUTCOME

The O'Neill Health Conference 2025 participants will self-report an increased knowledge about dealing with difficult people, grief, burn patients, and medically complex children in the rural healthcare setting.

Facility is handicapped accessible.

ABOUT THE SESSIONS

PROJECT AUSTIN – EMERGENCY PLANNING FOR MEDICALLY COMPLEX CHILDREN

Learn about the origins and goals of Project Austin, designed to improve emergency response for medically complex children. This session includes relevant statistics, key elements of emergency medical plans, and a mock 911 call and ER visit to demonstrate real-world application.

HOW TO HELP ADULTS COPE WITH GRIEF

This session covers the stages and signs of grief, including complex grief. Participants will explore physical and emotional reactions, helpful communication strategies, and supportive rituals. Activities include video discussion and a positive emotion exercise for coping.

PRE-BURN CENTER CARE FOR THE BURN PATIENT

Gain practical skills in burn identification and early care. This session covers assessment, transfer criteria, and the role of rural hospitals. Learn effective strategies for managing both transfer and outpatient burn cases.

DEALING WITH DIFFICULT PEOPLE

Discover how to recognize and work with seven challenging personality types. Learn self-care techniques, de-escalation strategies, and communication tools like “I-statements.” Includes a group discussion on navigating common workplace conflicts.
